

2023 Young Writers' Contest

Philadelphia Science Fiction Society
P.O. Box 8303; Philadelphia, PA 19101

April 24, 2023

Dear Young Writer:

The Philadelphia Science Fiction Society invites you to enter its 2023 "Young Writers' Contest."

- The contest is open to all students in grades 5-12, not just in Philadelphia.
- There will be separate winners for Middle School (grades 5-8) and High School (grades 9-12).
- Each contest will have a prize of $100 for first place and a prize of $50 for second place.
- The winners will also each receive two full memberships for this year's Philadelphia Conference of Science Fiction, Fantasy, and Horror (Philcon; November 17-19, 2023). If the winner is already a member of the 2023 Philcon, these memberships may be used for the 2024 Philcon. For more information about Philcon, go to www.philcon.org.
- Both science fiction and fantasy stories are eligible.
- Stories should be 1,000 words or less for grades 5-8 and 3,000 words or less for grades 9-12.
- Each contestant may submit only one story. This story must be accompanied by a copy of the submission form, which is included on back of this page.
- A contestant's contact information (name and address) must NOT appear in the story. All contact information should be on the submission form. The title should be on every page of the story.
- The contest opens Monday, May 15, 2023. Your stories must be postmarked or sent electronically by midnight on Saturday, October 7, 2023. A hard copy entry should be mailed to: Young Writers' Contest; Philadelphia Science Fiction Society; P.O. Box 8303; Philadelphia, PA 19101. An electronic entry should be sent by e-mail to: writingcontest2023@philcon.org. Stories may be submitted electronically in .pdf, .doc, .rtf, or .txt format. Please put "2023 Writing Contest Entry" in Subject Line of the email.
- Stories will be judged by members of the Philadelphia Science Fiction Society.
- Prizes will be awarded at the 2023 Philcon, November 17-19, 2023. Winners are welcome to bring guests to the award ceremony.
- The Philadelphia Science Fiction Society (PSFS) reserves the nonexclusive right to publish each winning story, with written consent of parent or guardian. You and your parent or guardian should also provide your signatures in the spaces provided on the submission form to acknowledge acceptance of these terms. You do NOT have to give PSFS publication rights in order to enter the contest.

Good Luck!

Lew Wolkoff
Lew Wolkoff
Contest Chairman

Philadelphia Science Fiction Society
2023 Young Writers' Contest
Submission Form

Name: _____

Grade: _____

Address: _____

City/State: _____ ZIP: _____

Phone: _____

E-Mail: _____ (student, parent, or guardian)

Teacher: _____ (optional)

School : _____ (optional)

Story Title: _____

If you wish to allow us to post your story on our web page and/or in our Program Book, should it win, then please provide signature acknowledgement of the following terms. It is not necessary to grant permission for posting in order for your story to be considered for the contest.

We hereby give the Philadelphia Science Fiction Society a non-exclusive, irrevocable, payment-free license to publish the submitted work in any form whatsoever, including, but not limited to, publication via any website of Philcon and/or the Philadelphia Science Fiction Society.

Parent or guardian: _____

Student/contest entrant: _____

Contest Code Number (PSFS use only)

Remember, your contact information should NOT appear in the story. All entries MUST be accompanied by a copy of this form.

Submission options:

- Send hard copy entry and this form to Young Writers Contest; Philadelphia Science Fiction Society; P.O. Box 8303; Philadelphia, PA 19101
- Send electronic entry and this form via e-mail to writingcontest2023@philcon.org. Please put "2023 Writing Contest Entry" in Subject Line of the email.

*The Contest begins on Monday, May 15 2023.
The Deadline for entries is midnight on Saturday, October 7, 2023.*